Update

It has come to our attention that a group (called the Canadian Frontline Nurses) is attempting to organize a “walkout” on Wednesday, September 1 at 1 p.m. to oppose what they call “medical tyranny of mandatory vaccines.”

Several health-care workplaces have been identified as target walk-out locations including University Health Network, Royal Victoria Hospital, Health Sciences North, London Health Sciences Centre (Victoria Campus) and The Ottawa Hospital. More locations could be added in the coming days.

These walkouts are NOT ONA-sanctioned events. ONA does not support these walkouts/rallies and we are not encouraging participation. In particular, should members who are working choose to participate and walkout we expect this will cause serious issue with their employer.

As always, information related to ONA and COVID-19 can be found on our website at www.ona.org/coronavirus.

Note: we are still awaiting the decisions from the arbitration panel for both the Hospital and Long-term care provincial contracts. You will be notified as soon as we have any further information.
